

Will T. Rogers

Bio

Will T. Rogers lives in the New York City vicinity where he writes songs, essays, and makes photographs. He pays the bills by teaching public speaking part time at a junior college. His musical interests are varied, reflecting the popular tastes of the public. His songs are carefully written, copyrighted at the Library of Congress, and now available for assignment. The demonstration songs are arranged, performed and recorded by him using a variety of computer programs and musical instruments and then mixed down to stereo mp3 files.
